

Dear Colleagues:

ACCJC will host an online ALO Orientation on Tuesday, June 22, 2021, from 2:00 – 4:00 p.m. PDT. Save the date and consider joining us for this important webinar! While the orientation is targeted to new ALOs, registration is free of charge and anyone may attend (existing ALOs, those interested in serving in the role of ALO in the future, others involved in accreditation). Please feel free to forward this message to anyone who may be interested. Full details and the registration link are below.

Kind regards,
ACCJC

ALO Orientation

Date: Tuesday, June 22, 2021

Time: 2:00 - 4:00 p.m. (PDT)

The role of the Accreditation Liaison Officer (ALO) is important throughout the accreditation and peer review cycle. Join this online orientation to gain valuable foundational information and insights from experienced ALOs about the role and responsibilities of serving your institution in this capacity. While the orientation is targeted to new ALOs, existing ALOs, those interested in serving in the role as ALO in the future, and others involved in accreditation may attend.

Panelists:

Valerie Barko, Director of Institutional Effectiveness and University Center,
Kaua'i Community College

Kevin Bontenbal, Vice President, ACCJC

Christopher McDonald, Vice President for Instruction, Irvine Valley College

Duncan Sutton, Director of Institutional Effectiveness and Strategic Planning,
Salvation Army College for Officer Training

Jennifer Vega La Serna, Vice President Academic Services, College of the Sequoias

Registration Information:

All attendees must register through the Zoom registration link. Registration is free of charge and will remain open until the beginning of the ALO Orientation. Please contact Jared Spring at jspring@accjc.org if you have any questions or issues with the registration process.
