Explore Featured Breakout Sessions at the 2026 Conference

This year's conference includes a wide range of breakout sessions designed to provide practical strategies, campus examples, and innovative approaches to advancing student success. A few highlights include:

Fostering a Sense of Belonging that Transforms the Student Experience and Ensures Success

Learn how Moorpark College has aligned its commitments to equity, access, and student success to create an institutional culture where students thrive. This session explores the practices behind the college's recognition as a two-time Aspen Prize finalist.

Improving Student Employability and ROI Inside and Outside of the Classroom

Join career readiness expert Niesha Taylor of the National Association of Colleges and Employers for an interactive session on embedding career-ready competencies throughout the student experience. Participants will leave with practical strategies to help students better demonstrate the knowledge and skills employers seek.

RSI: Beyond Compliance. Feedback that Grows Community Engagement and Student Success

Discover how Mt. San Antonio College transformed Regular and Substantive Interaction from a compliance requirement into a student success strategy. Learn how intentional engagement, consistent outreach, and institution-wide commitment can strengthen online learning and improve outcomes.

These sessions represent just a sample of the engaging conversations planned for this year's conference. View the full program overview at <https://accjc-conference.org/program-overview/>.
