SEXUAL HARASSMENT TRAINING (5/28/2010)

HR continues to offer services and training to all faculty and staff for continuous informational awareness. On May 28, 2010, HR provided a “Sexual Harassment Prevention” Training for the Community Natural Resources staff and other ASCC personnel who were unable to attend the first sessions. The participants evaluated favorably and expressed that the training provided them with insights that not only confirm their view of harassment but also heightened their responsibility to be cautious about what may be construed as harassment. As some participants commented...

- I recommend to include culture issues and define limits with culture in relation to harassment-sometimes cultural beliefs/practices may contribute to unnecessary harassment.
- Provide cameras on campus for eye witness purposes/provide real events or real people for demonstration.

A luncheon prepared by the Land Grant Staff, featuring not only Samoan delicacies like “fasipuaa” but also healthy food choices like green salad to promote healthy and balanced eating, kicked off the start of the training. Thank you Land Grant.
